Mission & Norms
Purpose & Goals
2. Review
PTO Budget	Emily not present so pushed to the end
3. Discussion
Meeting Time/Day Survey Results	71 responses, Difference between nights was very small, Julie said her votes for Monday and Tuesday should swap to Wednesday and Thursday, Wednesday requires a new facilitator because Andrea has Cub Scouts, Jennifer suggests keeping consistent so people are more likely to remember, Paul commented that board meetings are on Tuesdays. No could mean any day works or no, they wont come. Consensus of Thursday at 6:30 on the third week of the month made at 6:45.
Childcare Survey Results	62% said childcare would be helpful Matt suggested Lego FIRST league starts at age 6, hold weekly but line up with the monthly PTO meeting, have the members teach the younger kids Childcare will be provided looking for a parent volunteer with clearances, let us know in advance 4/1 for less than 3 years old, 5 and up can participate in the LEGOs Legos in EE room, 12 week season, cost depends on size of team Use sign up genius for the parents coming and age of child As long as we continue to get parent volunteers
Pizza Day Survey Results	45% monthly, 39% biweekly, 15% weekly Paypal or check to school Consensus on twice a month with option of once a month at 7:00 Starting in January, school will come back with first and third or second and forth, Paul will provide update tomorrow Amanda communicated that gluten free would be an option, cost is higher but was absorbed because it was a low request rate Full majority offered to contribute extra money towards Pizza Day In the past there was extra, those that qualify for free lunch will get it. $2 per slice, any extra money can go to Seven Gen Lends

Some of the teachers didn't appreciate the bake sale because of how much sugar
How are we raising money for field trips? If a grade needs money, they can reach out to the PTO. Some concern of grade equality. Do we know what the estimated costs.
Smencil for your kid and a kid in need for Valentine's day - Andrea to update
PTO has stigma of full of drama Paul, "You have to outrun the ghosts of the past"
