Stewart Ness will be consulted (by Andrea Dougherty) about pricing out different possibilities. Then reviewed his email: Jute tote: Could sell for $8/$10 - Yay Hat: Many question on size/design, price etc. (can we look somewhere else for the hats?) - Nay Magnets: Could sell for $5 - Yay Drawstring bag: Would it be blue?, could probably sell for $7/$8. - Yay, but not blue (green, or black with green print) To sell at Kindergarten Welcome (Coffee & Donuts), Gallery Walks, Holiday Fair, and any school event really John Moser spoke / introduced himself and his mission of creating a Dinner Event Planning Committee, with the goal of raising funds for the new security system. 'Secure the Future' event somewhere in the October/November timeframe. Reach out to corporations, foundations, etc. Asked people to consider joining the committee, or think about other people they would consider as being good candidates for the committee. Suggestions: Tyson Daniels, Karah Davies PTO Mascot: Half of total cost (434.99) approved= $217.50. - Yay
